

Christmas Has Gone

Inspirada

Christmas has gone
another year goes
leaving us a lot
to change in the world.

Santa Claus has come
on his sleigh in a rush,
wishing peace for us,
he left in a gust.

Christmas has gone
and everything's wrong, the grime is around
the poor have no home.

The government spoke
full of good thoughts,
about things they'll do,
but nothing is true.

Christmas has gone
and nobody is fooled
to think something good is coming so soon.

The dangers on streets
will certainly increase;
people will decrease.
No one gets peace.

Christmas has gone
And so, many more.
I should like a world where someone thinks good
